

International Work

In the Cayman Islands, Dr. Fletcher served 5 years as a Special Consultant to the Cayman Islands Department of Education, leading national programs for Strategic planning and Site Based Management. She also created School Improvement Action Plans for public schools and private academies.

In Jamaica, Dr. Fletcher assisted the Cayman Islands Minister of Education in consulting with the Jamaican educators.

In Jamshedpur, India, Dr. Fletcher worked with Tata Steel to help build a partnership between this major corporation and India's schools.

In Queensland, Australia, Janice's article, "The Joy of Teaching," was published in the Australia Teacher's magazine.

Degree Details

1997 Post-Doctoral Studies - International Education Systems & Administration - Kennesaw State University.

1996 Doctorate of Education - Administration & Supervision - University of Alabama.

1985 Specialist Degree - Administration & Supervision- West Georgia College.

1979 Masters of Education - Middle Grades, Language Arts - Georgia State University.

1976 Bachelor of Education - Elementary Education & Language Arts - The University of Toledo.